

JAMAICA

The Jamaica 4-H Clubs has received grant funding from the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), to implement, in Jamaica, select components of the City Adapt Project - 'Building Climate Resilience of Urban Systems through Ecosystem-based Adaptation (EbA) in the Latin America and Caribbean Region'.

The general project objective is to increase the resilience of vulnerable urban communities to climate change by applying and integrating Ecosystem-based Adaptation (EbA) into the medium to long-term plans within El Salvador, Mexico and Kingston, Jamaica. The project will promote EbA to government and local communities in these cities through the following three project components:

1. Enabling environment for mainstreaming EbA into medium- and long-term urban development planning,
2. Demonstrating urban EbA interventions to establish climate-resilient communities, and
3. Obtaining knowledge and increasing awareness of urban EbA interventions throughout the LAC region.

The Jamaica 4-H Clubs now seeks individual Consultants for the following:

- Project Lead
- Environmental Economist
- Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist

Individuals with interest may obtain the Terms of References of each post from the Jamaica 4-H Clubs website at www.jamaica.4hclubs.com.

Interested Consultants should submit a detailed Curriculum Vitae (CV) by email no later than Friday, June 24, 2022, at 3:00 p.m. to hadmin@jamaica4hclubs.com using the following subject line: PCA-CC-004-2021- Position Title Consultant. Offers received after the aforementioned date and time will not be considered.

Any request for clarification must be by standard electronic communication to the e-mail indicated above, no later than June 21, 2022 at 3:00 p.m. The Procurement Unit of the Jamaica 4-H Clubs will respond by standard electronic mail and will send copies of the response, including an explanation of the query without identifying the source of inquiry, to all indicative consultants.

This process is directed only to one individual. Any CV received jointly by more than one individual, or a company, will be rejected.
